Sometimes I forget why I'm a nurse; And what's really in my heart. Sometimes I'm just too busy; I don't know where to start. Then someone holds my hand, and greets me with a smile. They ask if I could stay with them; for just a little while. If I can calm a sorrowed heart, just because I'm there.

Then I'm reminded why I'm a Nurse

It's all because we care.
